SUPPLY CHAIN MATURITY ASSESSMENT

Too often, businesses invest in transformation - new tools, structures, or strategies - without a clear understanding of where they truly stand. The DMS Strategic Alignment: Supply Chain Maturity Assessment is a focused, consultant-led engagement that uncovers how well your people, processes, data, and technology are working together to deliver on your strategy.

In just six weeks, we'll help you identify capability gaps, misaligned objectives, and operational inefficiencies that could be costing you time, money, and performance. Through structured workshops, leadership interviews, and deep performance analysis, we provide a clear, evidence-based roadmap to accelerate improvement - without guesswork.

Whether you're scaling, modernising, or seeking competitive advantage, this diagnostic gives you the visibility and confidence to move forward with purpose. No jargon. No fluff. Just clarity on what's working, what's not, and what to do next
